

ARE YOU READY FOR A DOG

You think you would like to obtain a dog, so we would like you to take a few moments and answer these questions honestly, to be sure this is an obligation you are willing to take on. Remember "A dog is for LIFE". This commitment should NOT be taken lightly.

1. Think about why you want a dog. Are you willing to make the commitment in time, energy and expense?_____

2. Are you willing to spay/neuter your pet/companion?

3. Are you willing to spend the time and money to protect your dog with regular veterinarian care? _____

4. Are you willing to maintain your household/property in a manner which will safeguard your new dog?_____

5. If you find you can't deal with the dog for some reason are you willing to return your dog to its breeder?_____ OR are you willing to work with your dog through problems that might arise? _____

6. If your lifestyle changes (divorce, new baby in home, moving, etc. etc.) Are you willing to return the dog to its reputable breeder if necessary?

7. What will happen to this dog, in the case of debilitating illness or death of his caretaker? _____

8. Are you willing to keep your dog, mentally and physically fit?

9. A dog will bring its owners many years of love and companionship are you willing to give all this back to have a happy dog?

10. Are you aware that there are many dogs in shelters and/or breed specific rescue programs that have been surrendered because folks did not honestly answer all the above questions?_____
